Consultation Processes for Decision Making
The following is a schematic representation of the consultation involved in our decision making processes at West End State School. Each of these sectors has subgroups working with them to seek and provide advice to support the decisions made.